As we, the seniors of 1963, entered the halls of GHS for our final year, we remembered the wonderful times and fond memories which we will cherish forever.

Our freshman year was one of anticipation, hope, and fear. During our sophomore year we began to participate in more activities and become better acquainted with our surroundings. Our junior year was one of joy for at last we were upperclassmen; but to all of us, the senior year was most rewarding.

As we marched down the aisle with tears in our eyes, we heard the familiar strains of "Pomp and Circumstance."

We departed with heavy hearts knowing that the knowledge we had gained and the fun we had shared would be . . .

Mike Toler and Julie Troyer, two GHS freshmen, are shown as they enter GHS on a typical school day.

GOLDEN

This is Goshen High School on a typical school day, December, 1962.

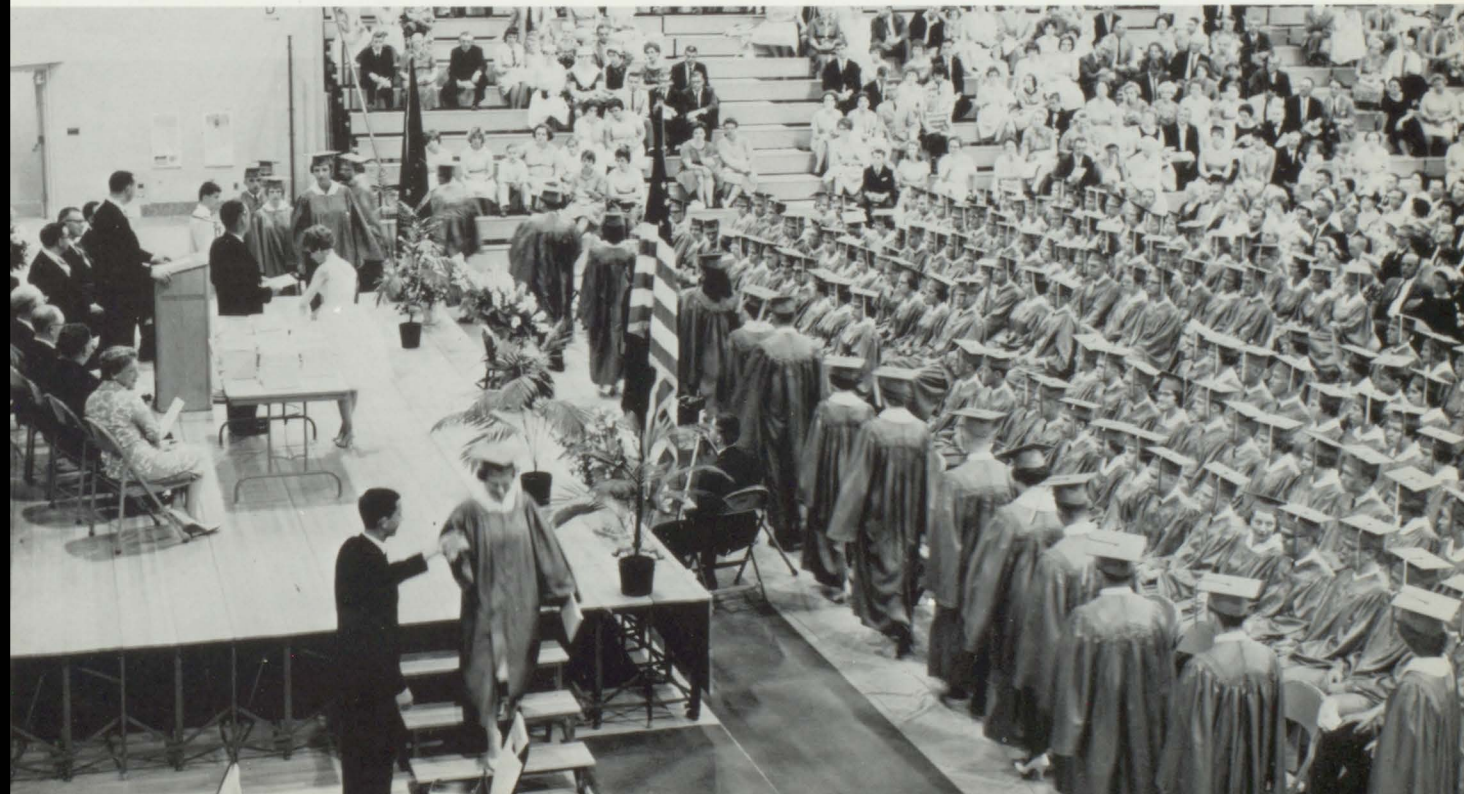

Terry Wortinger, Linda James, and Patty Curtis enjoy participating in noon-time activities in the GHS gym. The girls are members of the sophomore class.

GHS students look forward to selecting their class rings at the end of their sophomore year and receiving them at the beginning of their junior year.

MOMENTS TO REMEMBER . . .

One hundred eighty-two Goshen High School seniors received their diplomas at commencement exercises Thursday, May 31, 1962, in the GHS gym.

... AND SHARE WITH ONE

Amy Miller and Susie Jacobs chew on their carrots in the "Toyland Scene" during the GHS Christmas concert.

Virgil Snyder, Lynn Neff, Dick Brunk, and Denny Yoder enjoy playing ping pong during the noon hour in the gym.

Ron Milne and Sally Jo Miller are studying during the noon hour in 205.

ANOTHER

Steve Paul and Georgianna Pestow enjoy themselves at an after-game dance.

Jim Pressler, JoEllen Reiniche, and Penny LaRue pause for the photographer during the intermission at the GHS Christmas concert.

Freshmen Jill and Joan Russell are deciding which books they will need for their next-period class.

IN APPRECIATION ...

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sprunger have devoted more than half of their lifetime to the Goshen schools. Children in grades one through eight and youth in both junior and senior high schools have benefited from their untiring efforts to teach skills and appreciations for art.

Their singular contributions to American life as master teachers is evident in the high distinctions earned by their students in the field of art. These students are the first to pay tribute to them as being not only master teachers but counselors and friends as well.

Mr. Sprunger has taken part in competitive regional, state, and national exhibitions and has won numerous citations in many media. The murals in the Goshen High School auditorium and the Student Lounge at Goshen College are among many specific contributions to our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Sprunger consider it a great privilege to have been permitted to teach in this community. As they leave the active service of the Goshen schools, we wish for them the finest that life has to offer.

Young admirers seek autographs from the newly-crowned queen, Sheri Copenhaver, and the other queen candidates.

HOMECOMING

Sheri and her escort, Don Leedy, are shown at the dance featured after the homecoming game.

The crowning of Sheri Copenhaver as homecoming queen highlighted the fall activities at GHS. Out of seven senior girls nominated, Sheri was chosen queen by vote of the student body. The announcement of the winner and the crowning of the queen took place during the half-time ceremonies at the Goshen-Michigan City football game on October 5, 1962.

CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN

After many long hours of work, the senior class presented its play, "Cheaper By The Dozen" in the high school auditorium. Mr. Gilbreth is an efficiency expert, and it is his firm contention that what works in the factory can also work in the home. He incorporates such things as an imaginary bathtub to show how to take a really efficient bath, and a utilities officer to levy fines on wasters of electricity.

There is good reason for his behavior. Dad knows that he has a heart condition which he keeps a secret from the family, and that he is living on borrowed time. He is doing his best to make his family as efficient as possible and to get them along in school as far as possible. The play, which was a great success, was presented on March 15 and 16.

Don Ecklebarger, Steve Mitchell, Carla Earnhart, and Ann Jackson gather for a family council meeting.

Mr. Ney spent many hours preparing us for the big night.

FAMILY LINE-UP—D. Ecklebarger, K. Reim, T. Rankin, L. Miller, A. Jackson, J. Miller, J. Blosser, and C. Earnhart were the children.

Prompters Jackie Hamilton and Sandy Gunden look over the lines.

Father Steve Mitchell demonstrates how to take a bath efficiently as J. Blosser, C. Earnhart, D. Ecklebarger, K. Andresen, and K. Reim look on.

CHARLEY'S AUNT

The class of 1964 chose as its production the world-famous farce, "Charley's Aunt." In it Charley Wykeham and Jack Chesney, college men, try to declare their love to two ladies whom they invite to their rooms for luncheon. There they meet Charley's wealthy aunt from Brazil, ("where the nuts come from.")

When they find the aunt isn't coming, they force a friend to impersonate her. This old frump is then introduced to everyone as Donna Lucia, the millionaire aunt. Then the real aunt turns up and assumes another name.

All this complexity boils down to a fully enjoyable play, masterfully directed by Mr. William Ney.

Members of the cast Dave Pepple, Jim Pressler, Jim Seigmann, Nancy Penrose, and Beth Murphy go through a scene of "Charley's Aunt."

Barbara Herring, make-up committee chairman, prepares John Meyers for the footlights.

Diane Mowry, prompter, studies the lines as the cast rehearses.

Mr. Ney takes notes during a rehearsal.

PROMPTERS

Diann Paul      Diana Mowry

Erlene Gantz, Gayle Whitehead, and Jackie Stewart display their "ratted" hairdos, which were common at GHS.

Don Eckleberger energetically combs his "locks" as Karen Woods, Nedra Schrock, and Mary Ann Daub look on.

Knee socks and short skirts were also prevalent in GHS this year.

FUN 'N FADS

Many fans supported our team at Hettrick's Field the evening before the Goshen-Elkhart game. The main attraction was a blazing bonfire.

One of the most popular GHS families to friends and students alike are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blosser. Pictured here in their home on Christmas Day, they are shown with their family—Jim, a senior at GHS; Teddy, an 8th grader at Goshen Junior High; and Mona, a 5th grader at Parkside.

Mr. Blosser is chairman of the Mathematics Department, sponsor of the Euclidean Club, and GHS's official basketball scorekeeper for both at-home and away games. Mrs. Blosser is the indispensable secretary in the principal's office. They have been class parents for the class of '63 for the past four years.

Whether one is a friend, colleague, or student, one must agree that GHS is fortunate to have this husband-wife team on its staff.

VALENTINE'S DAY

Singing Valentines have become a tradition at GHS. Each year students may order from a Medicorps member a Singing Valentine to be delivered to his sweetheart in singing form during school hours. "If I Loved You," "Only Stars Above," and "Melody of Love" were the songs most popular with GHSer's this year. Four members of the GHS choir sang the Valentines during the 5th and 6th periods.

It is also traditional that the Sophomore Class sponsors a Sweetheart Dance prior to Valentine's Day. A sophomore girl is elected queen and a member from each class comprises the court. The dance this year was held in the GHS gym following the Goshen-Elkhart basketball game. Couples danced to the music of The Dukes.

Dave Holderman, Becky Bickel, Jim Pressler, and Alicia Brookmyer sang our Valentines for us this year.

THE DUKES, a Goshen dance band, furnished music for many of our after-game dances.

Steve Messick and Mike Hall are ordering their Singing Valentines from Judy Keim, a Medicorps member.

Miss Kotterman, our home-making teacher who replaced Mrs. Lambright for the second semester, is wearing a valentine corsage which was given to the teachers from the Sunshine Society.

THE QUEEN AND HER COURT OF THE 19TH RELAYS

Meribeth Yoder and her mother, Mrs. Ben Yoder, are shown here looking at the dress she will wear as queen of the 1962 Relays.

THE RELAYS QUEEN AND HER COURT: Becky Inebnit, Trudy Erst, Mr. Vernon Chapman, Queen Meribeth Yoder, and Sherry Milam are pictured here under the canopy of the reviewing stand at the 1962 Relays.

April 22, 1962, turned out to be a perfect day for the 19th Annual Goshen Relays. Honorary Referee Vernon Chapman crowned lovely Meribeth Yoder queen of the Goshen Relays in the opening ceremonies. The members of her court were Trudy Erst, junior; Sherry Milam, sophomore; and Becky Inebnit, freshman. The queen and her court are elected each year by the student body after the candidates from each class are presented at an auditorium program.

"UNDER THE

"Under the Magnolia Trees" was the theme of the first Junior-Senior Prom held in our new gymnasium on May 4, 1962.

Juniors spent many hours decorating the gym which was divided into two sections—the ballroom and the refreshment area. In the ballroom students danced to the music of Bobby Wear and his band from Elkhart.

After the dancing the Goshen Lions Club entertained the students at the Goshen Theater with "The Last Time I Saw Archie." From there, the students went to the Moose Lodge for a dance and entertainment. A group from the Purdue University variety band provided the music.

Breakfast at 4:30, served by the Lions Club, concluded the Prom for this school year.

Attending the prom was the 1962 CRIMSON photographer and editor, Denny Yoder and Fritzie Ridenoure, and the 1963 CRIMSON editor and photographer, Karen Woods and Tom Zollinger.

Loni Hursh and Brian Butler enjoyed a fast dance.

Juniors and seniors had a fine time dancing at the prom.

MAGNOLIA TREES"

Cookies and punch were served at the refreshment stand for both thirsty dancers and those who preferred to watch the festivities.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blosser, Mrs. Rock, and Miss Barnes were among the chaperones who attended the prom.

Roberta Yoder and Charlie Cotton, popular senior couple, were crowned queen and king just before midnight.

Joe Dervin, Jan Westfall, Charlie Cotton, and Roberta Yoder are admiring another of the outstanding decorations.

Ray Oswald, Greg Amadeo, Denny Yoder, and Brian Butler enjoy playing euchre at GYRAB.

G.Y.R.A.B.

GYRAB, the Goshen Youth Recreation Advisory Board, is located at 116½ East Washington Street. At GYRAB students have an opportunity to dance, play pool, ping pong, chess, cards, watch television, and have fun. The 1962-63 officers are Steve Messick, president; Rob Leveno, vice-president; Anne Sweitzer, treasurer; Susie Jacobs, secretary; and Lowell Fredericks, principal of West Goshen Elementary School, advisor.

Jim Holtzinger and Steve Messick take time out to have a coke.

Ray Swihart is selecting a song from the juke box.

Dan Schwab, Dave Williams, and Steve Rock appear to be watching television. Say, boys—the set's off.

Recreation unlimited at GYRAB—Denny Yoder appears to be concentrating very hard on this shot.

Lee L. Eve serves as the superintendent of Goshen City Schools. He is a graduate of Manchester College, Indiana University, and Columbia University.

Mr. Eve is a past president of the Indiana Schoolmen's Club, the Indiana School Business Officials and Superintendents Association, and the Indiana High School Athletic Association Board of Control. He is a member of state and national organizations for superintendents of schools. Locally, he is in demand as a speaker for school, civic, and church groups.

THE SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE

The 1962-63 Board of Education consists of four men and one woman who have been selected by the city council to act as a policy-making body for the Goshen public schools.

These school board members serve well at a job which not only demands sacrifice of time, but the ability and courage to make decisions and to withstand criticism. It is a thankless job that is of more significance than the general public realizes.

A few of their duties are to hire new teachers and administrators, approve the budget, plan and let contracts for school construction, and to translate the public's wishes into policies pertaining to the operation and function of the schools. They also assist in determining curricula and policies with respect to educational matters.

The Board's decisions are carried out by the Chief Executive Officer, the Superintendent of Schools.

Mrs. Roberta Rowell and Mrs. Josephine Young are the competent secretaries who work in the Superintendent's office. Mrs. Rowell is secretary to Superintendent Eve and the Board of Education. Mrs. Young is secretary in the office of the Superintendent. They are responsible for financial and personnel records, for ordering all supplies and equipment used in the Goshen schools, and for handling the many other details which emanate from the Superintendent's office.

PRINCIPAL AND STAFF

Mr. Charles Fields in his third year as GHS principal continues to work tirelessly for the welfare and academic standards of Goshen High School. Now a familiar figure at all GHS events, students have come to appreciate his quick smile, his memory for their names, and his well-groomed appearance. Mr. Fields received both his Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Indiana University. At present, he is a candidate for the Doctor of Education degree from Indiana University.

Mrs. Fred Blosser, secretary in the principal's office, is known to all Goshen High students. Whether looking up one's locker combination, issuing a parking permit, or keeping account of every penny in the extracurricular funds, her infectious personality is ever-present. She is indispensable to the smooth functioning of the many activities emanating from the principal's office.

Mr. Robert B. Mathews is assistant principal of Goshen High School, auditor of extracurricular accounts, and a teacher in the mathematics department.

A familiar voice heard at 1:00 each day by the Goshen High School student body is that of Mr. Fields. Here he is making the announcements concerning curricular and extracurricular activities over the new public-address system in the high school.

GUIDANCE

Pat Wortinger is asking Mr. Reiner for advice concerning her second-semester academic schedule.

Teresa Brown and Mr. Kastner are conferring about her senior schedule.

Mrs. Dorothy McFarland, nurse for the Goshen City Schools, is shown here in her office in the GHS Health Center.

Writing out admission slips for absentees is a routine procedure for Miss Jean Tribolet, girls' counselor. Here she is writing one for Jane Luke.

Mr. Gibson is shown here helping Susie Wisler plan her sophomore schedule.

Mr. Bemenderfer, Attendance Officer, is writing out an admission slip for John Alheim.

Mrs. Barbara Ogle and Mrs. Waneta Rock sell books and supplies to students in the mornings and between classes. Mrs. Ogle also assists in the attendance office, duplicates tests for the faculty, and is secretary to the Athletic Association. Mrs. Rock is secretary in the Guidance offices.

CAFETERIA

Mrs. Ruth Halpin, manager of the GHS cafeteria, is in her office planning the meals which are served to approximately 500 high school and junior high students each day. She is also responsible for planning and serving evening meals to any civic groups who wish to use the cafeteria.

Jerry Holtzinger, school engineer, is responsible for our heated classrooms.

Mrs. Florence Leonard, lady custodian, is shown here.

Helen Ronk, Lorena Detwiler, Myrtle Shriner, Phyllis Clingerman, and Dorothy Hicks are the faithful cooks who prepare the delicious food served in the GHS cafeteria.

CUSTODIANS

Harold Spencer and Clarence Ganger are the men who work at night to clean the building for the next school day. Not pictured but also on the custodial staff is Mr. J. Beachy.

Seniors

It was the beginning of an average school year for most . . . but not for the Class of '63. After three long years of waiting, we had finally reached the top—we were "big seniors" at last!

The year started with the usual confusion of buying books, getting schedules, and attempting to open our new lockers. Statements such as, "Anybody wanna buy a speech book?" or "Honestly, you're so-o-o tan!" could be heard echoing down the crowded hall.

SENIOR CLASS SPONSORS—Miss Arnold, Mr. Cullers, and Miss Grogg. Mr. Chandler was absent when the picture was taken.

Before we knew it, Christmas vacation was upon us and everyone struggled to finish their English and Economics research papers.

We realized our basketball team was really tops, when it reached 5th in the state and beat Elkhart, Michigan City, and Laporte. Even sub-zero temperatures couldn't keep us from attending each and every game.

Everyone pitched in and made our senior play, "Cheaper by the Dozen," a big success.

Lovely spring flowers will always remind us of our Hawaiian Prom. As the strains of Hawaiian music faded in our ears, we heard the majestic chords of Pomp and Circumstance.

Mr. Sprunger is admiring the February issue of the American Red Cross Journal which was reproduced from an original painting done by Senior Terry Vander-Reyden. Terry's painting, "The Americans," was selected from 2,700 entries and will be exhibited in 74 foreign countries.

JUNIORS

As we began our junior year at GHS, our hearts were filled with eager anticipation.

Under the careful guidance of our sponsors, Mr. Kastner, Miss Kyler, Mr. Peterson, and Miss Whitelock, we sold concessions and sponsored post-game dances.

Our Junior Class play, "Charlie's Aunt" was a success. During second semester, much time was spent getting ready for the Prom.

As our third year at GHS came to a close, we looked forward to being seniors.

JUNIOR CLASS SPONSORS—Mr. Peterson, Miss Kyler, Miss Whitelock, Mr. Kastner.

SOPHOMORES OF 1963

We, as sophomores, have successfully completed nearly half of our high school career. Under the leadership of our officers, Ken Massanari, Becky Inebnit, Beckie Yoder, Mike Rensberger, Nedra Brookmyer, and Doug Ritter, we have sold concessions, sponsored dances, and produced a sophomore variety show. With the aid of our sponsors, we are nearing the time when we may call ourselves juniors.

FRESHMEN OF 1963

CLASS SPONSORS—Miss Herrold, Mr. Hart, and Miss Yoder are shown discussing plans for our class. Mr. Clason was absent when this picture was taken.

As we the class of '66 entered the halls of GHS early this fall, things were strange and different. With a big year ahead of us, we wasted no time in choosing our class officers: Heinz Wegener, president; Roger Kile, vice-president; Judy Keim, secretary; Debby Mehl, treasurer; Fred LeCount and Susan Bungler, sergeants-at-arms.

With the help of our class sponsors, Miss Herrold, Miss Yoder, Mr. Hart, and Mr. Clason, we had no trouble in making the adjustments in our first year at GHS.

Our first money-making project was selling concessions at the Goshen-Concord football game.

Before we knew it, our adventurous year at GHS had ended and we found our freshman year interesting and challenging.

Classrooms

Larry Mullins and Gary Neuman are solving square root problems under Mr. Doba's direction.

Mr. Frey's first-period Geometry class was writing a test on the day that the CRIMSON photographer arrived for a picture.

Seniors who have completed Algebra, Plane Geometry, and Advanced Algebra are eligible for College Algebra—Trigonometry, a two-semester course.

Mr. Blosser, with the aid of the overhead projector, discusses an algebra problem with his second-period class.

MATH AND SCIENCE

A student interested in math may take courses all four years. Either General Math or Algebra I and II is required for freshmen. Sophomores elect Plane Geometry in which problems and proofs concerning figures in one plane are studied.

Juniors wishing more advanced math may enroll in Advanced Algebra where emphasis is upon roots and powers, logarithms, and quadratics. Solid Geometry in which theorems concern three-dimensional figures may also be elected.

Although Mr. Cullers' "volcano" wasn't really getting out of control, Steve Fiedeke is prepared as Joellen Reiniche and the rest of the Applied Science class watch the experiment.

PROVIDE CHALLENGE

Goshen High School is doing its part in training for the science age. Biology is one of the four science courses which may be taken to fulfill the one-year science requirement for graduation with a General Diploma. Applied Science is designed to be a practical two-semester course offered to juniors and seniors.

Chemistry and Physics are elective courses offered to juniors and seniors. Major objectives of these courses are to prepare students for further scientific study at the college or technical school level.

Mr. Bowers, head of our Science Department, is giving preliminary instructions to Paul Williams, Carolyn Martin, and Doug Blackport before they begin an assigned experiment.

Mr. Allyn with Scott Bradford, Mike Cripe, Gail Whitehead, and Toby Caldbeck are taking time out from Biology assignments for a closer look at the experimental rabbit.

"Como estan Uds? Quo mo-do te? Comment ca va?" may be heard in many GHS classrooms this year. There is an increasing enrollment and interest in foreign languages. Both Latin and French now have a four-year program.

Plans are underway for the installation of a foreign-language laboratory during the second semester in which the latest electronic equipment will be used to aid the student's mastery of a foreign language.

Miss Landaeta, our Spanish exchange teacher of Caracas, Venezuela, is shown with her second-period Spanish class.

WE STUDY

French student Bruce Johnson points to a French club poster which is inviting students to join French club. Cheryl Clason is selecting a French magazine to read.

Miss Shaffer's first-period Latin II class is working on their assignment.

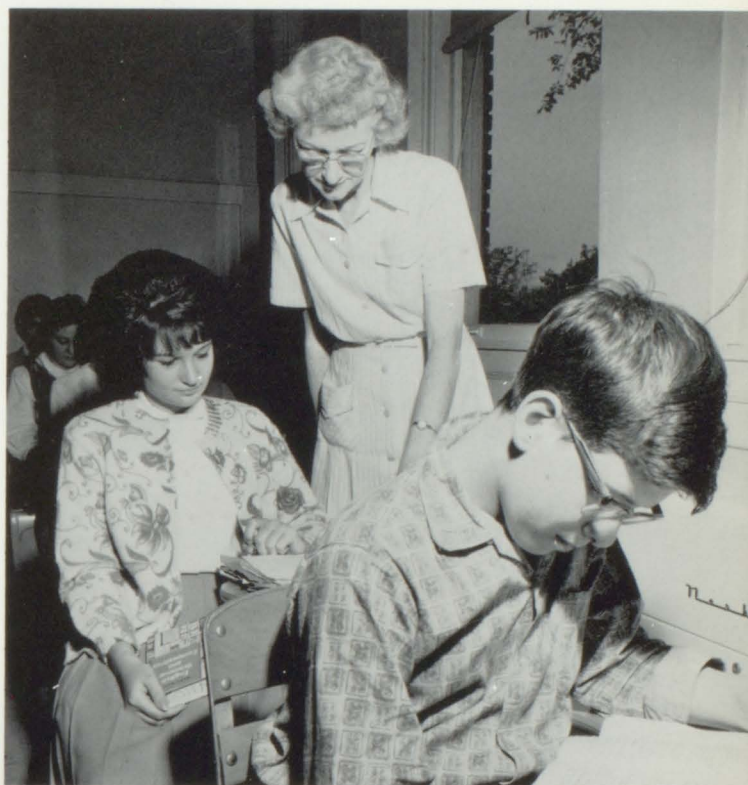

Peggy Grant is having her reading paced with the aid of a Shadowscope. Under the direction of Mr. Gibson, many junior and senior students are improving their reading skills.

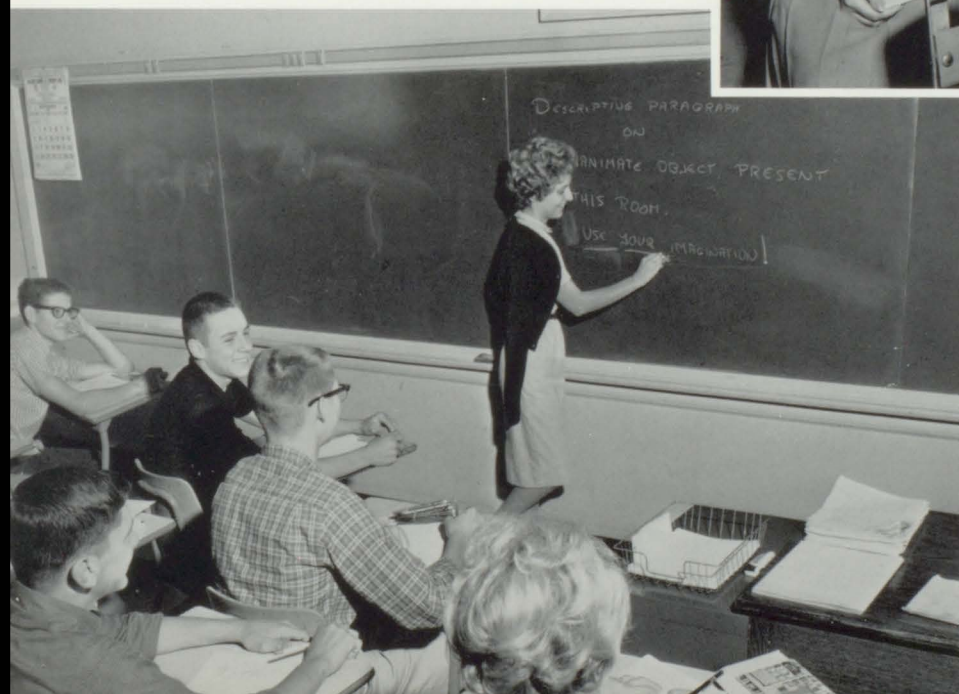

Phil Gentle, Tom Davis, and Mary Foreman read with the aid of the Shadowsopes in our new Developmental Reading Laboratory.

LANGUAGES, TOO

Each student in GHS is required to take at least three years of English. Freshmen and Sophomores take one semester of grammar and one semester of literature. Juniors must take a one-semester course in American Literature and then may choose Debate, Dramatics, English V, Journalism, or Speech as a second-semester course. College-bound seniors are advised to take English VII and VIII.

Miss Kyler is assisting Pamela Vander-Reyden with her Freshmen English. Larry Harvey is reading his text.

Miss Whitelock, a new GHS English teacher this year, is giving her Sophomore students a topic for a theme.

Mr. Hart's Office Machines students are always at work attempting to finish assignments on the particular machine to which they have been assigned. Debbie VanWieren and Carolyn Martin are shown as they were completing their work.

Miss Grogg, head of the Business Education Department, is assisting Nancy Weaver with her bookkeeping.

For students seeking a position in the business world or for a course for personal use, the Business Education Department has a good offering. General preparation for the business office includes a year of typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, and office machines. Each of these is followed by a one-semester advanced course in which office forms and production are given special attention.

Business Law is a general education course which cultivates an understanding of an individual's rights and responsibilities in common business transactions. Personal Typing is a one-semester course designed for non-business majors.

Other courses offered are Retailing and Office Machines.

Miss Tanja Fedorow is writing her shorthand in Mrs. Dwyer's first-period class.

BUSINESS COURSES ARE POPULAR

Miss Arnold's Advanced Typing class was taking a timed-writing at the time the CRIMSON photographer appeared. Seniors Mary Ann Daub and Janay Hubartt are in the foreground.

TALENT + SKILL = CREATIVE ART

Mr. Sprunger, head of the GHS Art Department, is giving a lesson in Sculpturing to Rosi McClain.

Dave Simmons, sophomore, is working on a sketch in Advanced Art.

Sharol Beckner is listening as Mr. Sprunger gives her suggestions for her drawing.

Goshen High School students have the opportunity to take their art work under the competent direction of Mr. Arthur Sprunger.

Art I is exploratory with a large variety of art media and techniques used. Landscape and perspective drawing, painting, and lettering are a few units of this course. Advanced Art is a continuation of Art I.

In Designs and Crafts, a great variety of practical and useful objects are made. Some of the fields explored are weaving, modeling, ceramics, sculpture, felt craft, metal work, and other media which are both interesting and useful.

In our modern and fast-moving world, there is still a need to learn the art of home-making. The new Home Economics suite provides many opportunities to learn skills such as child care, family and home relationships, planning and serving meals, and sewing. Courses offered include Foods I and II and Clothing I and II. Foods III, Advanced Clothing, and Homemaking IV consist of consumer education, house planning and furnishing, and food specialties.

Janet Mast, Janice Culp, and Bonnie Miller are giving their six-weeks reports in Mrs. Ulrich's second-period Homemaking class.

ABLE HANDS

Penny Weldy and Linda Haney in first-period Clothing I are working on red and white striped vests for the members of the CRIMSON staff to wear during their subscription campaign.

Mr. Rogers in Auto Mechanics is instructing senior auto mechanics students how to test the ignition system of an automobile.

Dennis Bailey and Phil Blosser are receiving instruction from Mr. Peterson on how to use the circular saw.

Dennis Ditmars is receiving instruction from Mr. Warstler on a lathe in Beginning and Vocational Machine Shop.

PREPARE FOR THE JOBS OF TOMORROW

Dick Essig and Dan Schwab are working on a differential in auto mechanics.

Five different courses are offered to the student interested in the industrial arts field. General Shop is a prerequisite which is exploratory in nature. Advanced Woodwork is a one-year course for those who have completed General Shop. Beginning Machine Shop is a one-year course in metal work offered to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Advanced Machine Shop and Vocational Machine Shop are one-year electives for juniors and seniors. Mr. Alvin Warstler is head of the Industrial Arts department.

Vickie Goodenough, Mary Alexander, and Vickie Richardson are practicing archery in a sophomore Physical Education class.

Two years of Physical Education are required for both boys and girls. Conditioning, group sports, games and relays, rhythmic activities, and aquatics are included. Health, a required course given at the freshman level, is also a part of this department. An attempt is made to instill a wholesome understanding of all phases of adolescent growth, and sound attitudes toward desirable health behavior are stressed.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Mrs. Wanda Paluchniak is the one responsible for keeping a constant supply of clean towels, swim suits, and gym uniforms for the approximately 500 students who are enrolled in Physical Education from both junior and senior high schools each semester. The cafeteria's linens are also laundered here. The laundry room is located in the northwest corner of our new gymnasium.

Kim Dunnick is doing the bicycle in a sophomore Physical Education class.

Glen Inebnit is doing the sit-ups.

Mr. Clason's second-period Civics class is listening attentively to a panel composed of Dave Williams, Steve Messick, Dick Brunk, and Jon Penn. The topic under discussion was American Corporations.

SOCIAL STUDIES TEACHES GOOD CITIZENSHIP

Furthering the student's knowledge of governmental structure, history of the United States, and American economy are some of the goals attempted by the Social Studies department. Seven courses are offered.

Citizenship is required of all freshmen. World History is a one-year elective course offered to sophomores. United States History is required of all juniors for graduation. Civics is also required for graduation and may be taken during the junior or senior year. Economics, Sociology, and Psychology are one-semester elective courses open to juniors or seniors.

Bill Edson, Cheryl Minard, and Peggy Roose are locating on the map a place under discussion in Mr. Hufford's second-period United States History class.

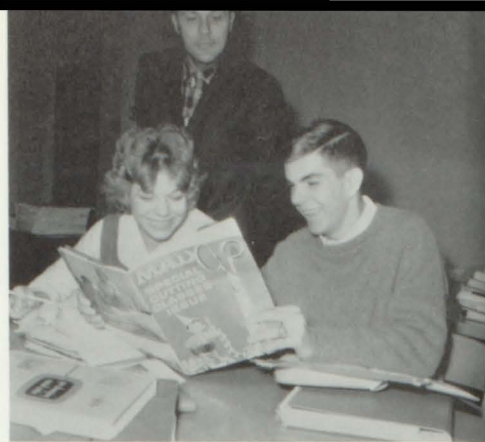

Barbara Herring, junior, is selecting a reference book in the library for one of her assignments.

WE STUDY ... MOST OF THE TIME.

Miss Barnes, GHS librarian, is stamping a book for Jane Ramsby.

WHAT HAVE WE HERE?
From the look on his face, Mr. Hart suspicions that Marilyn Marquis and Bob Nesius are NOT studying their sociology.

Hmmm! It seems that this magazine has been traveling throughout the study hall.

NOW THIS IS ENOUGH!
Jim Tyler hands over his cherished copy of MAD to Mr. Hart. Don Ecklebarger looks on.

IN MR. HART'S STUDY HALL? No, this is not the common thing, but Steve Rock just had to try on, for the CRIMSON photographer, a mask which had been made in a recent art class.

GHS CRIMSON MARCHING BAND

GHS BAND HEADLINERS — Geoffrey Hartzler, Jan Westfall, Kathy Pafas, and Ellen Peterson led the Crimson Marching Band during the 1962-63 season.

The GHS Crimson Marching Band, consisting of ninety-four members, enjoyed a most successful marching season. In addition to performing its sparkling precision drills for four home football games, the Crimson Band traveled to Mishawaka to present a half-time show, to Butler University to perform at the half-time of the Indiana State-Butler University football game, and to Fort Wayne to the State Marching contest where once again the band won a Division I rating in Class A. Drum Major for the band this year was Geoff Hartzler, with Jan Westfall as head majorette.

OUT OF STEP? NOT OUR BAND — The Crimson Marching Band performed many snappy drill routines on Foreman Field this year.

GOSHEN HIGH SCHOOL CONCERT

Highlights for the concert band this year included the winter concert, the spring senior concert, and the state band contest. Twenty-seven members of the concert band participated in the state final audition contest held at Butler University, and won a total of fifty-seven first-place medals. The GHS Band is one of seven Indiana High School Bands selected to perform at the National Convention of the American School Band Directors Association to be held in Elkhart, Indiana, in November of 1963. The director of the GHS Band is Mr. Robert Sharpe.

Officers of the concert band who so ably fulfilled their duties during the year are Jim Blosser, Robert Stump, Doug Myers, Tim Bryant, Ron Milne, Susan Hart, Marcia Bears, Jill Hershberger, Sharon Lambert Joellen Reiniche, and Lois Kauffman.

BAND IS SENSATIONAL

Directed by Mr. Sharpe the GHS Pep Band played at all of the GHS home basketball games. Members are: Dave Holderman, Dwight Yoder, John Phend, Penny LaRue, Gene Jones, Larry Landis, Ray Deahl, Kim Dunnick, Bob Stump, Charles Harrell, Martha Plank, Grace Cripe, Ron Rolston, Erline Gantz, Kennlyn Kurtz, Sharon Lambert, Jim Blosser, Joellen Reiniche, Earl Gantz, Jill Hershberger, Chip Winnebald, Tom Baxter, and Dave Snooks.

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

For the first time in the history of Goshen High School, its basketball team has ranked first in the Eastern Division of the Northern Indiana High School Conference, sharing the title with South Bend Central. Both teams have an 8-1 Conference record.

This is also the first time in the history of the school that a team has won thirteen consecutive games. The final game that clinched Goshen's winning streak was played with Mishawaka.

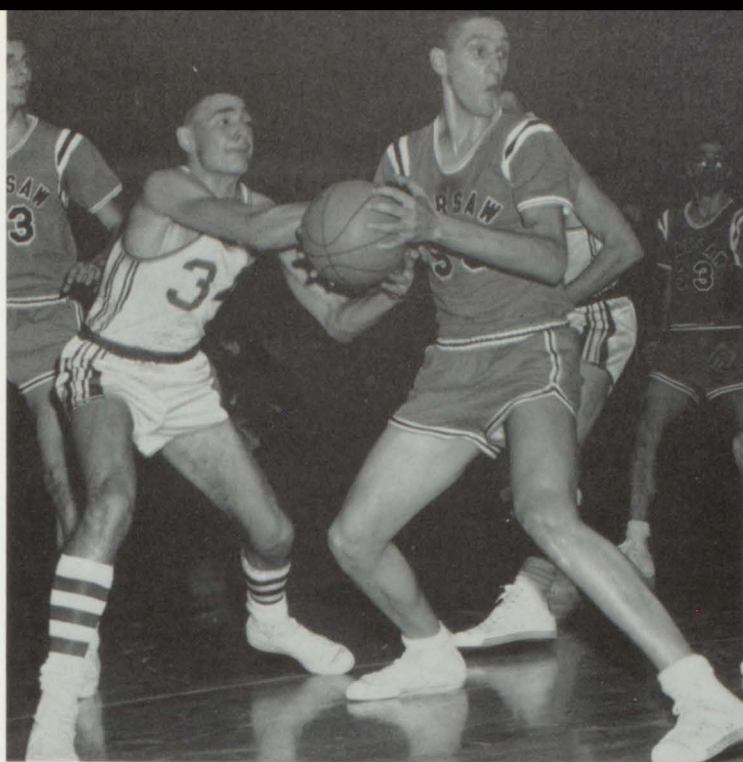

GOSHEN'S John Corporon attempts to steal a tip from Mishawaka's Keel in the final NIHSAA clash of the season. The Goshen victory, 85-79, thrust Goshen into a tie with South Bend Central for the conference title. This was the first NIHSAA title in the history of Goshen High School. The win also gave Goshen a season record of 19-1, also the best in school history.

REDSKINS RANKED

THE 1962-63 Goshen High School Basketball team won 19 games in the regular season, losing only to S. B. Central. The basketball team consisted of Rodney Mack, Ron Miller, Tom Bittle, Fred Hostetler, Kurt Schelle, Doug Smith, Randy Saal, John Corporon, Paul Williams, and Bill Edson. The managers were Bob Nesius and Ed Hutchinson. Their coach was Mr. Art Cosgrove.

Fred Hostetler has different ideas than Warsaw's Jack Wallen about who should have possession of the ball. It seems there will be an argument occurring about it.

Randy Saal and John Corporon don't seem to know what to do when a Nappanee player started crying when he didn't get possession of the ball.

John Corporon fakes out the opponents with a lay-up.

5th IN STATE

Randy Saal shows that he is an extremely versatile ball player with a driving lay-up in contrast to his out shooting against Middlebury. Goshen set a new county scoring record in this game by downing the Middies 104 to 47.

Fred Hostetler and Doug Smith seem not too interested in the rest of the game as they relax on the floor. Or maybe this is some new plan Mr. Cosgrove has thought up to fool the opposition.

Ron Miller uses a little shoulder motion in this rugged drive against Nappanee.

Fred Hostetler adds another two points against the Elkhart Blue Blazers to help the mighty Skins to a 43-39 victory.

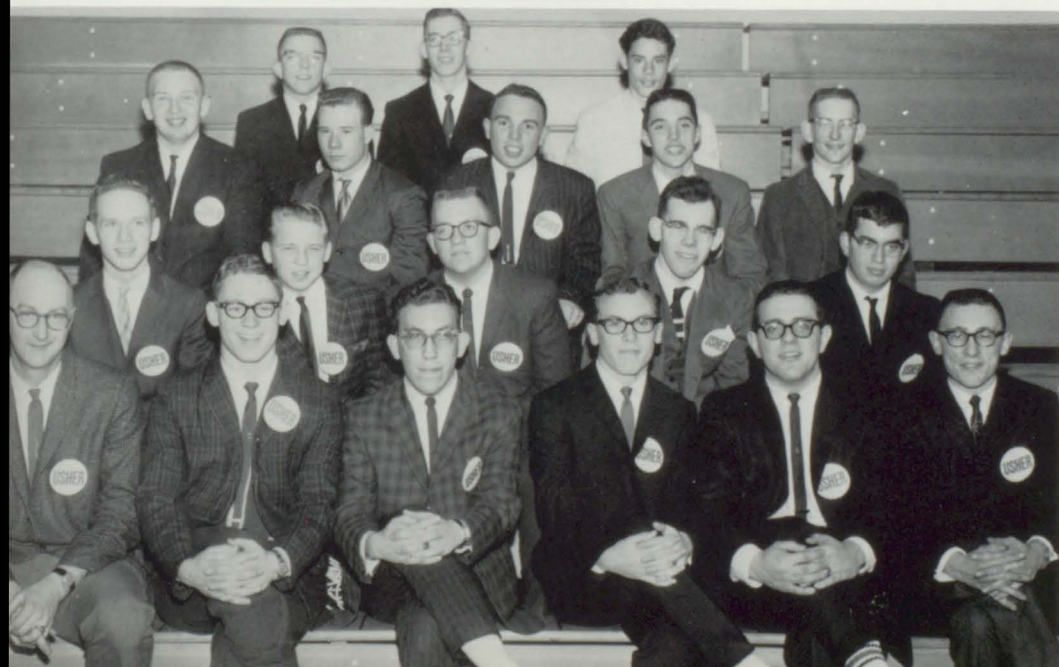

Bill Edson, Mr. Cosgrove's number 6 man, drives out of trouble against, at that time, the State's number 1 ranked school. Bill helped to spark a Goshen victory, 67-64.

All eyes are on the floor as the Redskins tangle with S. B. Washington. The fans were very faithful; and during the Riley game, at Riley, the Redskins had more fans than Riley.

Mr. Art Cosgrove, in his fourth year at Goshen, has put together a very respectable ball club. Through his many long hours in practice and preparation he, with a great team of ball players, pushed Goshen High to the ranks in basketball that a Goshen team has not known for many years. Our hats are off to this great coach and man.

HIGH RECOGNITION

On November 20, 1962, Coach Ennis rescued senior John Wellington unconscious from our swimming pool and administered mouth-to-mouth resuscitation until breathing was restored. His prompt action saved John's life. In recognition of this, Mr. Ennis was awarded the Certificate of Merit issued by the American National Red Cross.

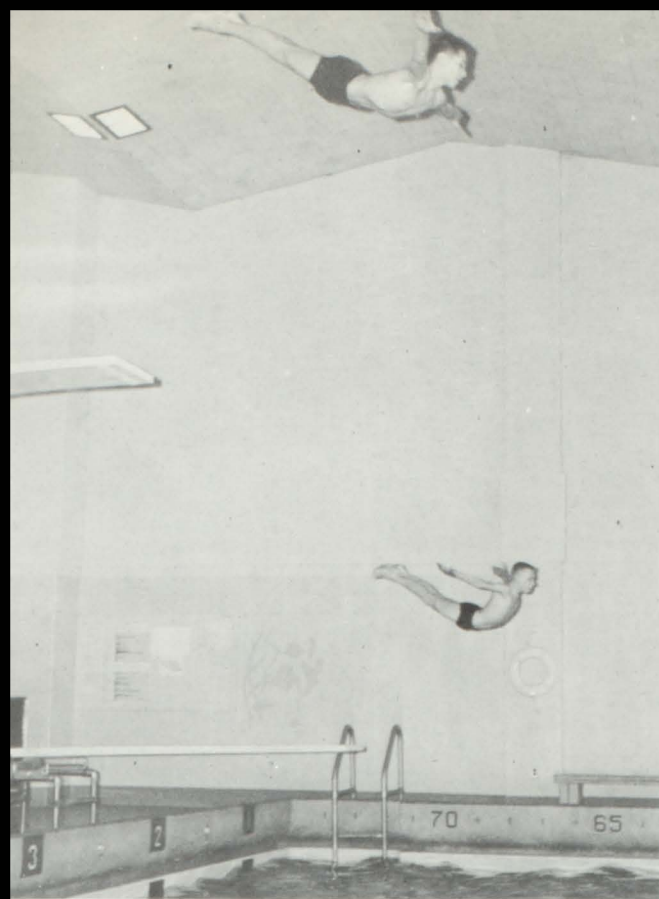

Lynn C. Neff, senior, who first pulled John Wellington from the pool, was awarded a Certificate of Recognition by the Red Cross. Lynn's certificate reads: "Certificate of Recognition to Lynn C. Neff for Extraordinary Personal Action on November 20, 1962, at the Goshen High School Pool, in promptly recovering an unconscious fellow member of the Goshen High School Swim Team, resulting in saving the life of John Wellington, Jr."

Mr. Donald Gill, chairman of the Board of Directors for the Goshen Chapter of the American Red Cross, is presenting the Certificate of Merit to Mr. Bill Ennis, our swim coach, and the Certificate of Recognition to Lynn Neff, GHS senior.

VICTORY was a word that rang through the halls of GHS many times during the basketball season. The sound rang clearly after the defeats of Michigan City, then the state's number 1 ranked team, and after the Elkhart game. Senior boys Dick Brunk, Don Edwards, Larry McCall, Richard Bartow, Keith Cripe, Dick Eysol, and Larry Gouker proudly display this Goshen VICTORY sign in the final seconds of the Elkhart game.

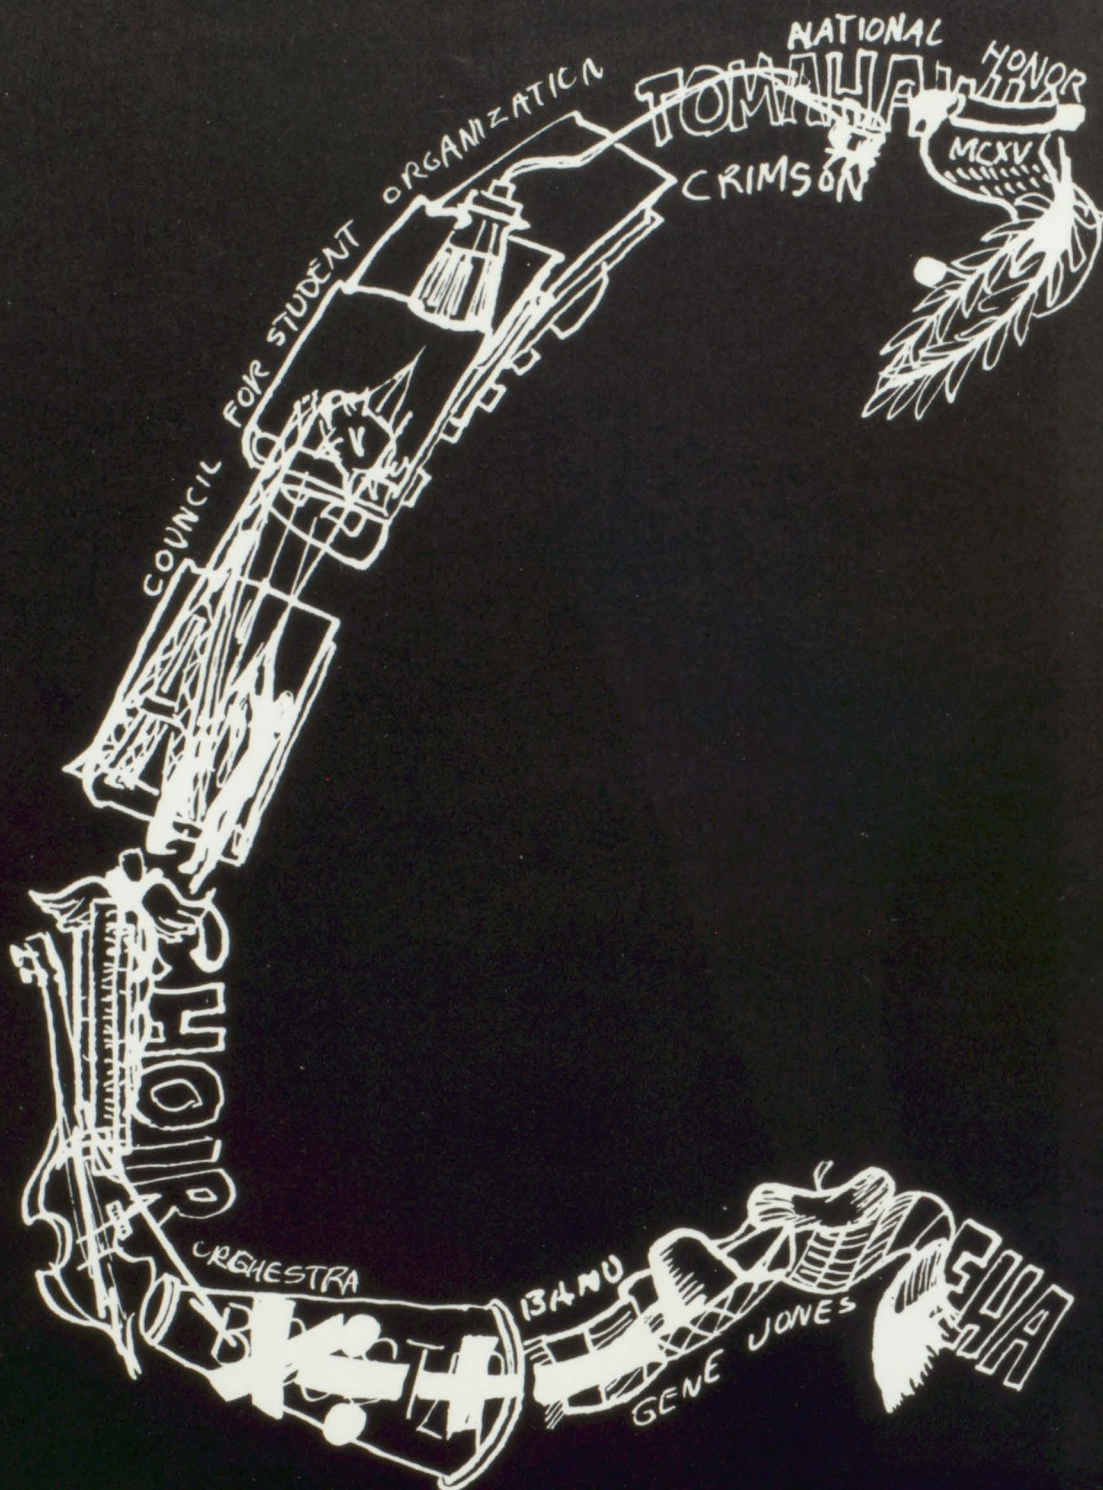

BE A GOOD SPORT ON OR OFF THE COURT — Senior Anne Sweitzer's slogan was chosen from various slogans entered in a contest for the GHS gym.

'63 CRIMSON

Karen Woods, editor, celebrates her birthday with other members of the CRIMSON staff.

The freshman, sophomore and junior pictures were arranged for the book by Pam Andre, Cynthia Lambert, Kay Winters, and Beverly Bewyer.

Sports editors Denny Yoder and Don Ecklebarger are choosing pictures for a sports-page layout.

Senior editors Becky Overholt and Ann Jackson planned the senior section and directory of the '63 CRIMSON.

Mary Ann Daub, book-keeper, and Nedra Schrock, subscription clerk, are counting and depositing CRIMSON money.

Clubs editor Darlene Comstock, Marcia Bears, Nancy Kile, and Barb Herring look over some layouts for their section of the book.

YEARBOOKS "Apologies to Edgar A. Guest"

It takes a heap o' workin' on a yearbook t' make it great,
A heap o' thought and pencil pushin' to meet the first due date.
But when yer through ye 'preciate the book ye lef' behind
An' hunger fer that work somehow, with it allus on yer mind.
It doesn't make any differunce how big yer book may be,
How much yer pages an' cover cost—or how great yer fee.
It ain't completely yers, though it's almost into printing
Until somehow yer soul is sort o' wrapped into the thing.
A yearbook ain't a thing that gold can buy or get up in a minute.
Afore it's done there's got t' be a heap o' workin' on it.
Within the cover there's got t' be some artwork—and people short and tall,
Captions, copy, fun n' fads, an' pictures big n' small.
An gradjerly, as time goes on, ye find ye wouldn't part
With the many hours you've worked on it—they've grown into yer heart.
The members of the staff were sweet; they sometimes worked fer hours
'Cept maybe two, not many more, who sat around like flowers.
I'll ne'er forget the nights I wept because I got frustrated
'Cause a 50 page shipment was due nex' day and mine would be belated.
But all that's over with, right now—I'm finished, done and through
I don't have to worry about March 1—when the final shipment's due,
I can sit back, relax, and watch next year's staff work late.
There's only one thing I've got to say—"It takes a heap o' workin' to make a yearbook great!"
—The Editor, Karen Woods

TOMAHAWK —

OUR SCHOOL NEWSPAPER

Marion Newcomer, Editor-in-chief, Ann Cushing, managing editor, and Becky Bickel, copy editor, are shown here planning the next issue of the Tomahawk.

The Tomahawk is the official monthly publication of Goshen High School. This paper is edited by the students of GHS on their own time or as an extracurricular activity.

The policy and objective of the paper is to try to keep the students informed about the activities, attitudes, and ideas of both groups and individuals in the student body. The paper tries to meet these objectives in both a serious and light vein.

To help defray publication expense, the Tomahawk sponsors several money-raising projects during the year. In addition to their projects, the paper must rely on subscribers and advertising to meet the cost of having the paper published.

YEA! GOSHEN

FIGHT! FIGHT! was a familiar sound heard from the boys' booster club.

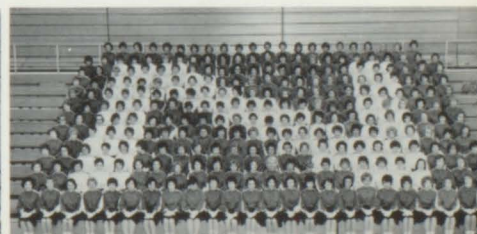

THE GHS BOOSTER CLUB is an organization designed to promote good sportsmanship and enthusiasm. Led by the school cheerleaders, the girls' and boys' blocks lend support at all home games and the tourneys. Musical accompaniment is furnished by the pep band.

This year the organization is guided by our sponsor, Barbra Zook, and the following officers: Pat O'Dea, president; Karen Dillenbeck and Amy Miller, co-vice-presidents; Ed Hartzler, treasurer; and Trudy Bradford, secretary.

SCIENCE CLUB

SCIENCE CLUB—In an attempt to open a window to the ever-expanding field of science for members, the Science Club of Goshen High School provides members with monthly programs, movies, lectures, speakers, demonstrations, and a yearly educational trip. In this way, Science Club serves students who may be the scientists and leaders of tomorrow.

Officers for the 1962-1963 school year are Larry Landis, president; Ronald Milne, vice-president; Anna Marie Moriarty, secretary; Nancy Penrose, treasurer; Ray Deahl, director of external affairs; and Elmer Bowers, sponsor.

Spanish is one of the most important languages in our ever changing times. Activities in Spanish Club are designed to enrich the student's study of the Spanish-speaking countries.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

Jewel Ditchett, Sheri Milam and Karen Dillenbeck are shown here looking at the mural they painted for the French classroom.

FRENCH—Through films, lectures, songs, plays, parties, and other special programs, the GHS French Club seeks to promote a better understanding of the French culture. This year the club sponsored French examinations for superior second and third year students and also contributed to the International Foster Parents Organization. A beautiful mural, depicting a typical street in France, was painted by three French Club members during the summer and is now displayed in the French classroom.

Entering its fifth year, Le Cercle Francais attempts to interest more students in French customs. Membership is open to any student presently studying French or who has taken the course for at least one year.

Club officers are Trudy Bradford and Jewel Ditchett, co-presidents; Ann Jackson, secretary; Martha Trenshaw, treasurer; and Mr. Robert Fancil, sponsor.

Mr. Ney, sponsor of the Forensic League of GHS, spends many hours traveling to other schools to enter his students in competitive speech activities.

The Goshen High School Forensic League, though just an infant organization, was very active in the Indiana High School Forensic Association activities. The members of the Forensic League are given the opportunity to participate in original oratory, extempore speaking, discussion, radio announcing, humorous interpretation, poetry reading, and debate. A total of 114 schools in the state of Indiana belong to this association.

1963 officers are Sheri Copenhaver, president; Mary Riddle, treasurer; John Nagle, secretary and director of external affairs, and Mr. Ney, sponsor.

MEMBERS—J. Reiniche, M. Riddle, L. Lawrence, J. Nagle. Standing: D. Lewallen, J. Alheim, J. Phend, M. Peffley, T. Harley, and B. Bigler.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Future Teachers of America Club was organized at Goshen High School this year for those students interested in entering the teaching profession. The purpose of the club is to help students learn more of the profession, to explore their interests in developing qualities essential for good teachers, and to learn of the requirements for certification and the cost of an education.

Officers are Sheri Copenhaver, president; Amy Miller, vice-president; Lois Kauffman, secretary; Angela Kauffman, historian; Cheri Minard and Trudi Erst, parliamentarians. Sponsors are Barbara Arnold and Ethel Grogg.

Seated around the table are Lois Kauffman, Sheri Copenhaver, Amy Miller, Cheryl Minard, Becky Overholt. Standing are Miss Arnold, sponsor; Angela Kauffman, Trudi Erst, and Miss Grogg, sponsor.

"G" MEN'S CLUB—The "G" Men's Club of Goshen High School is composed of boys who have earned their block "G" by meeting the requirements for winning their letter in the varsity sports program.

The purposes of the club are to help promote school spirit and develop greater interest in the sports program and to achieve a sportsmanlike attitude on the part of the athletes and the student body.

The sponsors of the club are Mr. Rumsey, Mr. Doba, and Mr. Locke.

The club officers for the 1962-63 term are Fred Hostetler, president; Randy Saal, vice-president; John Corporon, secretary; Ron Miller, treasurer.

COUNCIL FOR STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS—Row 1: Miss Tribolet, J. Strang, K. Massanari, H. Wogener, Mr. Allen. Row 2: E. Hartzler, Mr. Chandler, P. O'Dea, Mr. Mathews.

Council for Student Organizations consists of four class sponsors, one representative club president, president of Student Council and the Assistant Principal.

The Council considers methods and goals of raising money for school organizations. Duties include a continuous evaluation program of existing clubs.

Mr. Mathews, Assistant Principal, acts as chairman.

COUNCIL REPRESENTS STUDENT BODY

Student Council is composed of four class presidents and five students elected from each class. The group seeks to promote understanding between the student body and the administration. By acting as a liaison between the two, the Council constantly tries to evaluate and improve school policies and thus boost school spirit.

It sponsors dances, supervises noon activities, plans the election of cheerleaders, and arranges for the Goshen High School Relay Queen and her court.

The members of Student Council are shown here in room 101 during one of their monthly meetings.

MEDICORPS

MEDICORPS—Our Health Careers Club, is composed of ninety students in our High School who have an interest in some area of the medical field. Our programs and projects throughout the year are informative not only about nursing but include material in such areas as Medical Technology, X-Ray Technology, Physio-therapy, Mental Health, the career of Dental Hygienist, helping the handicapped, and becoming familiar with services in our community that contribute to better health for all.

Our members have the privilege of serving on duty in the school Health Center and also in Goshen General Hospital every day, for two hours after school as Junior auxilliary aides. Early in the year new members are invited to attend an orientation program at Goshen General Hospital to acquaint them with the various jobs they will be performing. Also there is an annual trip to South Bend Memorial Hospital for all members.

Our Singing Valentines project is the means by which we are able to send a large contribution to the Indiana Heart Association each year. OFFICERS are Marilyn Lambert, president; Ann Weddell, vice-president; Jane Moist, secretary; Barb Herring, treasurer; Edna Weddell, public relations chairman; Dorothy F. McFarland, R.N., sponsor.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

NATIONAL HONOR—High scholastic achievement and leadership are promoted by the National Honor Society. It is composed of the upper 5% of the junior class and the upper 15% of the senior class. This year the members were initiated in an impressive ceremony emphasizing the importance of student scholarship and service. A student Loan Fund is maintained to help students further their education. Each year National Honor Society has charge of the Goshen Relay concessions.

Beer, Miss Tribolet.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY—Our Goshen chapter of the state-wide Sunshine Society has as its goals, charity, love, kindness, helpfulness, and giving intelligent service in our community.

The Sunshine girls sponsor the Thanksgiving program and sell used books to the student body. The Easter Sunrise Service is planned for the community. Another community activity was making favors for the convalescent homes at Christmastime.

During the spring of each year we have a Mother-Daughter Tea and also honor the Senior girls at a Senior-Girl's Breakfast. Our members also contribute each year to the Riley Hospital Fund and the Sunshine Nurse's Scholarship.

This year's officers are Margo Conrad, president; Joellen Reiniche, first vice-president; Alicia Brookmyer, second vice-president; Nancy Penrose, secretary; Becky Yoder, treasurer; Diana Lechlitner, corresponding secretary; Miss Jean Tribolet, sponsor.

Chatting in the Sunshine Lounge before going to class, are Margot Kohler, Elaine Jennings, and Patricia Cramer.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

FHA—The over-all goal of the Future Homemakers program is the same as the over-all goal of home economics education—that is, to help individuals improve personal, family, and community living. One of the outstanding educational features of the Future Homemakers program is that it is basically pupil-initiated and pupil-directed. The program of work is based on the needs of youth. The five priority concerns are education, family relations, early marriages, social acceptance, and world and community affairs. Another outstanding feature is that emphasis is placed on cooperative rather than competitive activities. At the present time, the Indiana Association is sponsoring two American Indian children and five foreign-born children.

Some of the things done this year include formal initiation of new members, a Christmas dinner at Bashor Home, furniture purchased for the living area, installation of new officers, and a party for senior girls and their mothers.

Officers are Judy Strang, president; Janet Mast, Becky Swihart, vice-presidents; Dawn Trook, secretary; Thelma Harshberger, treasurer; Debby VanWieren, historian; Evelyn Hershberger, parliamentarian; Connie Downing, Editor; Mrs. Hollie Strang, chapter mother; and Mrs. Byron Ulrich, advisor.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Camera bug Mel Troyer, the Goshen News photographer, has shared his sports pictures and many other photographs with us in order that we might picture the many events happening in and around Goshen. Mel also took many of our advertising pictures.

Thank you, Mel, for your wonderful cooperation.

Gene Jones, our art editor, did an excellent job on our divider pages. His various cartoons and sketches throughout the book will be cherished by all.

Many thanks to Don Ecklebarger for compiling our student index. Through his untiring effort we have obtained something for our yearbook which we have never had before.

Again, thanks to Tom Zollinger, our photographer, for his many wonderful pictures. Without his snapshots our yearbook could never be complete.

LEDGEMENTS

Dear Friends:

Well, kids, all of our long hours of work and toil are over. No more pictures to be taken, captions to be written, or pages to be planned. To those of you who worked so diligently and patiently, thanks.

To Mrs. Dwyer, thank you for prodding us along when we felt like calling it quits. Without your excellent advice we would have been lost.

A special thought of gratitude is extended to those responsible for the photographs in the '63 CRIMSON. Mel Troyer gave us sports pictures and advertising shots and Mr. Gordon Moore took senior pictures, classroom pictures, and the full-page pictures in our book. Tom Zollinger is responsible for our faculty pictures, informals, and many advertising shots. Much time and legwork were involved in these jobs.

Don Ecklebarger—thank you for alphabetizing names and compiling our student index. To Nedra Schrock, who worked so far beyond the call of duty, your hard work and patience has not gone unnoticed. Thanks, also, to Nedra and Denny Yoder who were high salesmen during the CRIMSON campaign.

I should also like to extend my appreciation to Taylor Publishing Company and their representative, Mr. James Smock. They did a wonderful job in publishing our CRIMSON.

Last, but not least, thank you to the patrons who advertised in our book. Without these people, it would be impossible for us to have a yearbook.

To my editors—your hard work during the noon hours, after school, and on the weekends will never be forgotten.

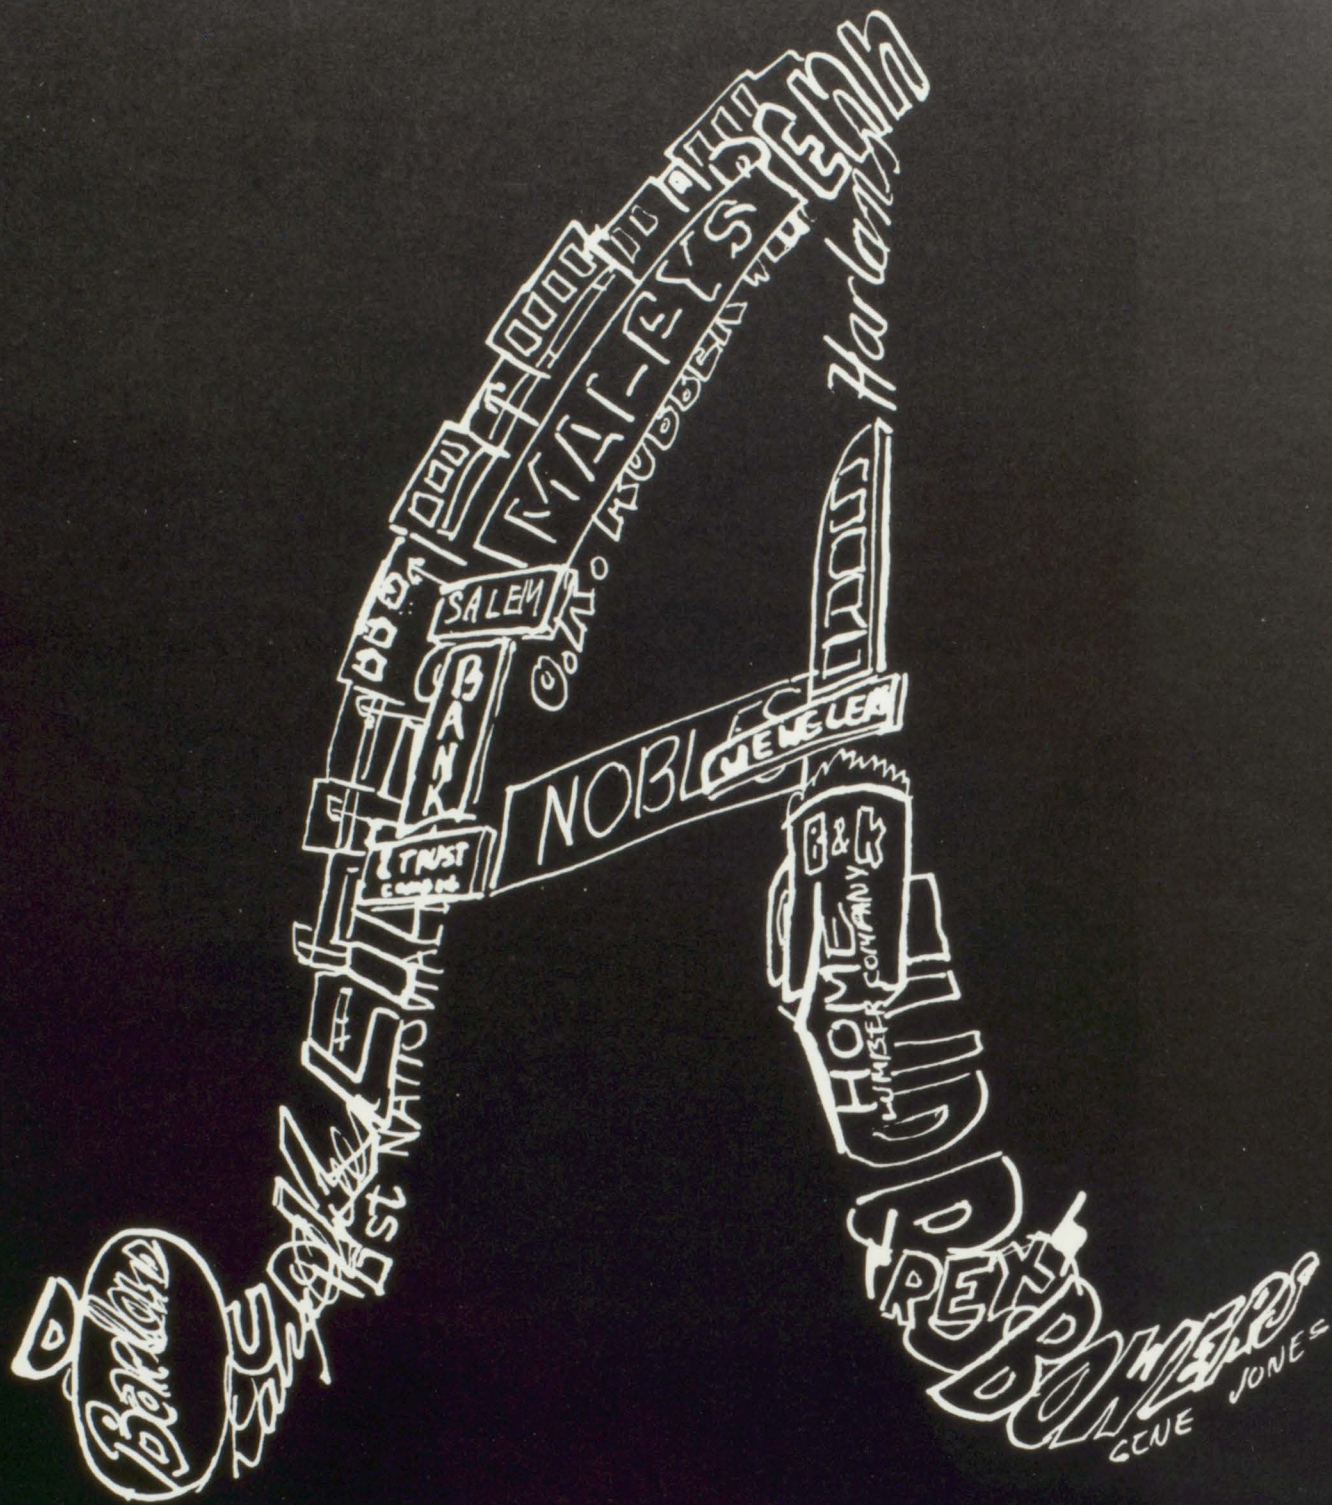

I now submit to you our frustrations, tears, joys, and pride in the form of this yearbook, the '63 CRIMSON. I hope you like it!

Sincerely,

Karen

TO COACH ART COSGROVE AND OUR '62-'63 BASKETBALL TEAM

Behind each great man it has been said
There is a woman pushing him ahead.

Behind every great team I'd like to add
There's a Cheer Block like the 'Skins have had.

The Band plays notes with a peppy beat,
Escorting each girl to her seat.

In a red blazer, our Miss Zook
With her girls a loyal stand took.

Thirst, weariness, heat, and cold gladly we'll endure
To aid our 'Skins in feeling backed and secure.

Susie, Rosi, Marcie, and Carol
Dressed in appropriate colored apparel.

Jim and Terry, we wouldn't forget
"Yell, boys yell, we'll beat them yet."

O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave
All present stood and attention gave.

Hello, opponents, how do you do;
We have a good team and so have you

So let's shake hands and let the game begin;
Good luck to you and may the best team win.

The captains shook hands all around,
Each one hoping to be victory bound.

The Refs are introduced; we're ready to go;
Their shrill whistles they did blow.

Jump, Doug, jump, boys get that tip;
The 'Skins played ball with a zip.

Playing Middlebury was a lark;
Our 'Skins cracked that century mark.

Quoting Mr. Saal, "My comments I will hold Until to Fort Wayne we have strolled."

Randy and his gang didn't let his dad down
But proved to North why they'd come to town.

The Cubs from New Paris revenge did seek,
To conquer the 'Skins they were too weak.

During the game at Nap, the Refs couldn't agree;
Ron clinched the game two throws for free.

John Adams' Eagles came to Goshen undefeated;
Fifth win for the 'Skins when the game was completed.

Now to Frankfort our new opponent to meet;
Team play saved the 'Skins from defeat.

Scoring sparked early by Randy Saal,
They out-rebounded the Hot-Dogs tall.

Fred, high scorer the night before,
Tonight Ron this honor bore.

With teammates Bill or John
Playing harder as the game went on.

Fastest start in twenty-two years
But the jinx at Central, Norm fears.

Of South Bend Central, we all say
'Skins we're with you, all the way.

You fought hard and didn't win
But then the flu bug had set in.

No excuses from the 'Skins;
We'll take our loss with our wins.

Warsaw next and we see red;
Last year you insulted our Fred.

Randy and Ron scoring more than twenty—
Fouls, fouls, fouls a plenty.

You took our Fred, you took our John;
We had two more to count upon.

Come on, Kurt, come on, Bill,
We're steadily climbing up the hill.

Climbing high with good hard fighting
85 to 60 the 'Skins went riding.

The Tourney's on—a Trophy's in sight;
We know our 'Skins will put up a fight.

Fort Wayne Central with Concord was paired;
Goshen with Wabash and all was squared.

The Apaches' scalps by the Redskins were taken;
The Tigers over the Minutemen, they weren't faking.

Accidents happen—take the Chevy, please;
Gametime found Ron playing with ease.

Concord defeated—Wabash won;
Goshen over Central—all was done.

Twenty-eight for Fred, for Saal twenty-seven,
This Tourney was played by all eleven.

The trophy received by the Captains three;
Mr. Cosgrove, we're proud of thee.

Cutting down the nets, turns they took.
Aided by the girls and Miss Zook.

Concord, you too often did beat;
This time you suffered defeat.

Michigan City, number one in the state,
The 'Skins number 12 and 19 did rate.

Quoting Woody, "It won't be easy I know,
But with 'City I'll have to go."

Mr. Corporon came jet propelled;
Each parent joined in, cheered and yelled.

Magnificent teamwork displayed by the 'Skins;
The ball was confused but Smith rolled her in.

Two seconds to go, one and one, with no debating—
Ron scored twice for a number-seven rating.

Heroes of the game, were there none?
Six players fought hard and won.

The Cheerblocks were as proud as punch;
Chief Go-Hi's Braves—WOW, what a bunch!

Police for students and fans were no match,
But not one from the doctor needed a patch.

Chuck, Don, and the gang were there;
Cheering the team they did their share.

Ten popular 'Skins showered and dressed,
To a happy coach they look their best.

They were all terrific; what can I say—
Gather around boys, before we go away.

Then each in his own words and each in his own way,
They bowed their heads and they did pray.

WKAM played the tape twice on the air;
Chuck explained, "Popular request, it's only fair."

Norm and Mel gave the NEWS a new look;
The Millers added eleven pages to their scrapbook.

Kendallville played ball control without shooting,
Keeping the 'Skins from the score high booting.

The second string continued to drive,
Kept the score ahead by twenty and five.

Two from South Bend we've already met;
The Eagles and the Bears we'll never forget.

Washington did those Bears defeat;
This is the team we're next to meet.

Fred, Randy, Doug, John, and Ron,
Prepare yourselves; the battle is on.

The Coach prepared them in plenty of time
To beat forty-six to sixty-nine.

Elkhart stormed in, in white and blue;
Bell sputtered, fumed, yelled—that's true.

Confident Elkhart—how sad—
To their victory-yell did add.

Look out Goshen, here we come;
We'll pluck your feathers one by one.

Phend's boys themselves, were spent;
And to the showers then they went.

Feathers all in their places;
Happy smiles upon their faces.

Along came the 'Skins playing good or bad;
Injury to insult they did add.

The fans were nervous, the tension high;
Out went the Blaze, the smoke flew by.

The boys' cheerblock cheered and yelled;
The letters on their shirts, VICTORY spelled.

Bell's gum refused to take more
And threw itself upon the floor.

Hail, calm Cosgrove! We love him better;
Elkhart went home without a feather.

We hadn't heard the last of Mr. Bell;
His tinkling complaints were recorded well.

Norm billed it as the laugh of the week;
Goshen 'Skins, keep your winning streak.

First Fort Wayne North, Central second,
Now with South, the 'Skins reckoned.

The tension all gone from the Elkhart game—
Goshen went to Fort Wayne and found fame.

Four boys in figures double,
Just one encountered foul trouble.

The second five were ready on the spot,
Continued to keep the victory hot.

Tom, Kurt, Rodney, Bill, and Paul—
Ten men played in this game of ball.

LaPorte, a victor over 'City,
Our boys have courage and want no pity.

The fans tormented Mr. Fields—
Tickets, tickets were their squeals.

Tied at the end of regulation play,
Go away, Goshen, before we beg you to stay.

Tied once and twice more,
The 'Skins won on the Slicer's floor.

Nineteen for Ron and Doug eighteen,
Congratulations, boys, you're a fine team.

Center Doug Smith was our hero,
Scoring 5 from 48 to zero.

The journey home was short and sweet;
The Redskins had handed LaPorte a defeat.

On the front page, the Coach and his mate,
Happy Birthday, we think you're great!

Again to South Bend we will travel;
'Skins are wishing Riley to unravel.

3,000 fans, two-thirds from Goshen,
To win was the Redskins' notion.

Redskins and Wildcats battled through the game;
By 23 points Riley came out lame.

Saal sailed 21 points through the net,
Seventeen for John and we were all set.

Home we go and to our beds,
Tomorrow Clay meets the Reds.

We've won every game on our home floor;
Colonials from Clay need we say more?

Clay played Kendallville-style,
Ten-point margin but good as a mile.

One loss and eighteen wins—
Saal was high for the 'Skins.

Five Senior boys, each with a sad heart,
The last home-game before they depart.

According to Norm, in black and white,
This team put up a terrific fight.

The doggonest team that red and white wore,
Records they've broken and gunning for more.

Mishawaka Maroons ran over LaPorte;
Now we'll go play them like a good sport.

In Losher's bus all comfy and neat,
We're with you 'Skins, through win or defeat.

Mishawaka played ball to the finish;
But the 'Skins had also eaten their spinach.

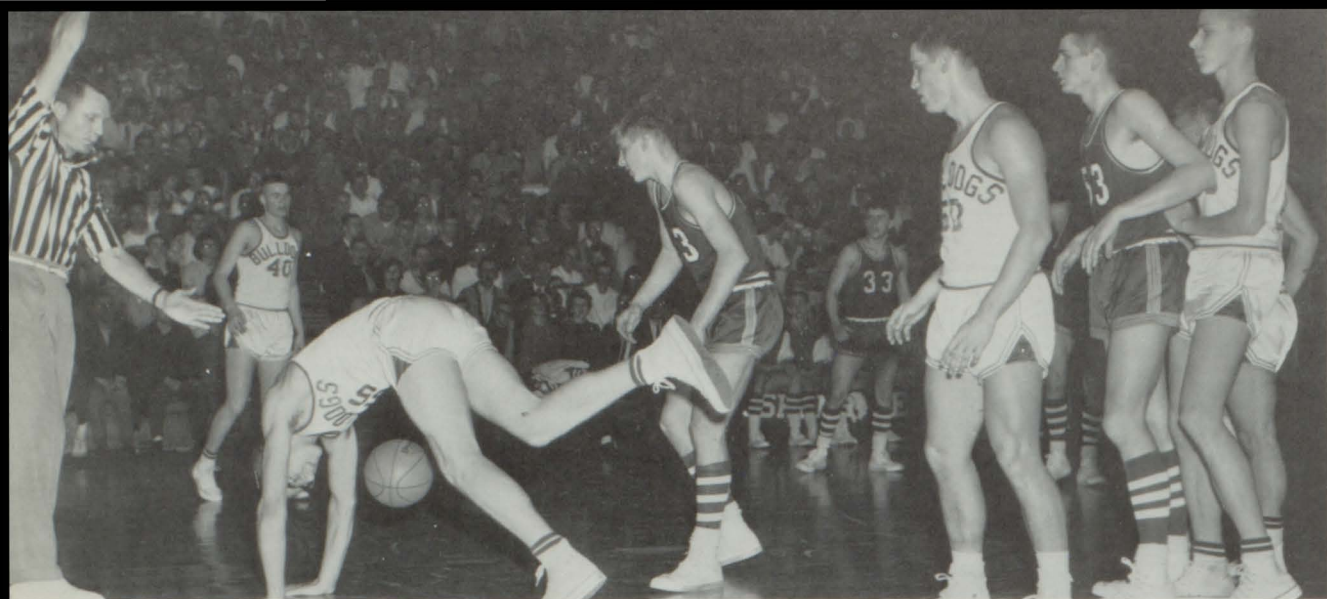

The score was 85 to 70 and 9,
Ending '62-'63 with a record fine.

Congratulations to the Coach and his boys!
You've given us thrills, you've given us joys.

At the Sectional, come what may—
We're still behind you all the way.

We've been real proud the season through;
Good luck from us to all of you.

—By MRS. WILLIAM J. MILLER
(Ron's mother)

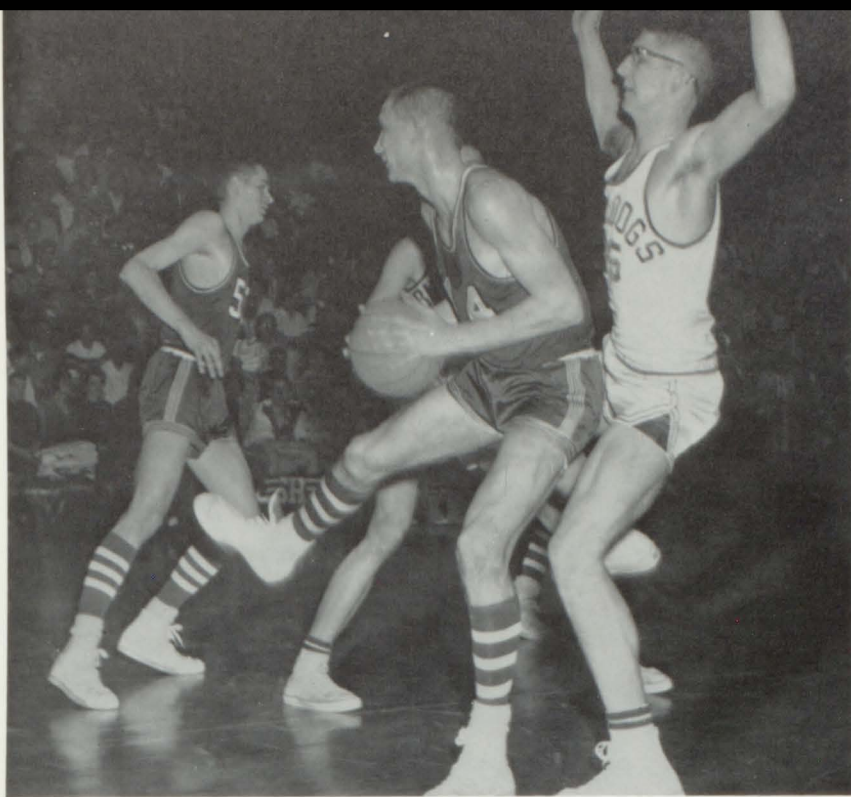

Watch, boys, while I show you the handstand the coach taught me," says Nappanee's Blosser, or this is what he seems to be doing in the final Sectional play.

'63 SECTIONAL

FIRST TIME in 21 years the Goshen High School Redskins can rightfully claim the Elkhart Sectional title. The Championship team is Mike Edson, mascot, John Corporon, Fred Hostetler, Doug Smith, Randy Saal, Ron Miller, Manager Bob Nesius, Manager Ed Hutchinson, Coach James Phend, Rodney Mack, Paul Williams, Jim Miller, Kurt Schelle, Bill Edson, and Coach Arthur Cosgrove.

Saal takes a rebound from Nappanee's Blosser during the crucial final minutes of the championship game.

Fred doesn't even give Penn's Berkey a chance in the semi-final round of the tourney to help in a decisive defeat.

CHAMPIONS

TOURNEY SCORES

|               | GHS | OPP. |
|---------------|-----|------|
| Jimtown       | 40  | 61   |
| Middlebury    | 43  | 69   |
| Penn Township | 64  | 74   |
| Nappanee      | 68  | 74   |

For the first time in 21 years, Goshen came home with a Sectional title, after defeating Nappanee 74-68 in the final game of the Sectional Tourney held February 27 through March 2, 1963, in Elkhart's Northside Gym.

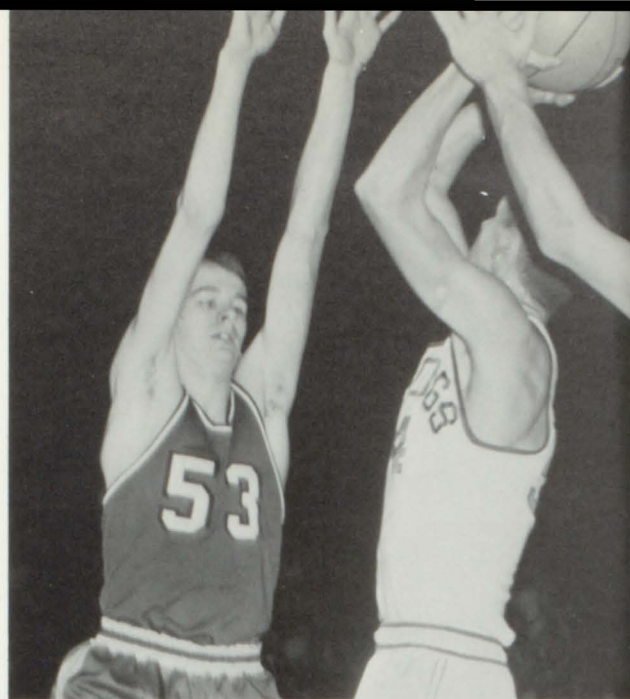

The 'Skins progressed to the final game by defeating a spirited Penn Township team who, in turn, had defeated our county rivals, New Paris. The Skins sighed a breath of relief when the enthused Bulldogs downed arch-rival Elkhart in an overtime thriller.

It is beginning to become a habit with the Redskin's Coach Art Cosgrove—cutting down nets we mean. The Sectional makes the second one this year.

Doug Smith attempts to block Berger of Nappanee from connecting on this shot. Smith played an excellent series of games during the weekend.

Pat O'Dea, Mr. Cosgrove, and Mr. Fields are shown holding the blanket given to the basketball team by the Booster Club. The presentation was made during a pep session held before the tourney.

"MASCOT MIKE," as Chuck Miller referred to him in his poem at the victory celebration, has been a faithful follower of the team from the opening game to the Sectional Finals. Mike is here domineering the Nappanee Bulldog preceding the Big Game.

HOOSIER HYSTERIA is very prevalent as the Redskins were welcomed home after the wild ride through the city, escorted by the Goshen City Police and State Trooper Henry Cripe, Jr.

THE PAUSE THAT REFRESHES—The team is shown in a pose that isn't seen by everybody, women inferred. The team takes a "Coke Break" at half-time and after the game.

OUR REDSKINS

Ten big Indians dressed in red and white
They're better known as Redskins and they know how to fight.

The tallest of the bunch is a fellow named Doug Smith;
With that left-hand push shot, his scoring is no myth.

To get the ball from back to front, it takes a lot of moxie;
John Corporon handles this one nicely because he is so foxy.

To keep the ball at the right end of the court, it takes a bear around the boards;
Fred Hostetler fills the bill because of the rebounds that he hoards.

The corner shot is tricky . . . no job for a beginner;
Randy Saal rips the net and makes us out a winner.

When time is running out and the game has been a thriller,
You've got a 3 point lead, so . . . just give the ball to Ron Miller.

The smallest Brave is "Mascot Mike," and he's got a brother named Bill.
I'm talking about the Edson's, the substitute guard with a will.

Paul Williams is a deadly shot, in practice, so they say;
He's had his chance in the real thing, and he makes those shots pay.

Rodney Mack is a cracker jack in the back court now and then;
He'll come through when he's called upon and he'll be called again.

Kurt, the kangaroo Schelle—WOW, how that boy can jump!
He shoots straight down at the basket, while others' shots have a hump.

Then along comes a guy named Jim, who looks more like Jay every day.
With 2 Millers on the team, how can we lose? and what more can another Miller say?

To bring them along as far as he has, the credit goes to the coach.
With Art Cosgrove at the helm, we'll squash those Bears like a roach.

Time is running out for my part on this show;
And there's so much more that I'd like you to know.

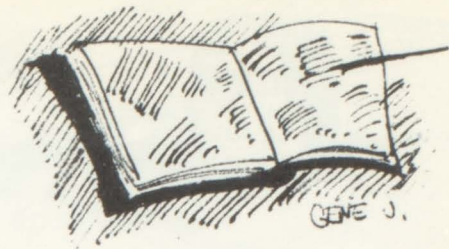

But with the time that I've got left, suffice it to say
We at WKAM and all of us in Goshen are with you, Redskins—
ALL THE WAY!
